LIBERALISM AND THE GLOBAL ECONOMY

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MONT PELERIN SOCIETY

Between October 29 and November 1 of this year, the Mont Pelerin Society will hold their annual meeting with the theme “Liberalism and the Global Economy: Bretton Woods at 80 Years”. The event will take place in the same location of Bretton Woods, in the state of New Hampshire, USA.

The Executive Director of the institution, Dr. Edgardo Zablotsky, will be present at the meeting, which will also be attended by the Development Director of the Center, Dr. Martin Krause, as a member of the society’s Board of Directors.

You may find more information about this important event at the following link.

In addition, we would like to let you know that the call for papers is open to those who are under 40 years of age, in the category Young Scholars. Those who are selected may receive travel grants to participate in the meeting. You can find more details about this call here.
